DCI WEEKLY REPORT PUBLIC AFFAIRS OFFICE

Media Relations

The DCI's speech to the World Affairs Council on 25 October sparked a number of calls from the media requesting copies of the speech and further information on the chemical plant in Libya. Public Affairs is working with DI/OSWR to determine if there is any further unclassified information that can be released.

25X1

The Director of Public Affairs visited the Northwest Portland and Seattle Rotary Club luncheons on 25-26 October. Approximately 400 Rotarians and the press attended each event. The Rotarians remarked on the "excellent program" that the D/PAO gave. Mr. Baker also spoke at a luncheon for 12 Portland executives, who noted that "the topic was fascinating and presented with clarity."

Executive Appearances and Invitations

The DCI spoke to a standing room only crowd of over 700 members of the World Affairs Council of Washington, DC on Tuesday, 25 October. President of Council, Philip Odeen, noted the great amount of interest the Director's appearance created. All questions were submitted in writing and Mr. Odeen who also acted as moderator remarked about the great number that the audience sent forward to the podium. Of particular interest to the audience were the sections of the speech on chemical warfare and Congressional oversight.

The DDCI addressed the Air Force Intelligence Conference Banquet of approximately 400 academicians, military officers, and representatives from the defense-related industries on Friday, 21 October at the Sheraton National Hotel. The conference director, Colonel Ken Currie, said the attendees thought the DDCI gave a good review of the intelligence issues we face in the coming years. Many favorable and positive remarks were made concerning the speech; the DDCI's humor was particularly noted and enjoyed by all.

MEMORANDUM FOR: Director of Central Intelligence

FROM:

Henry P. Mahoney

Acting Deputy Director for Administration

SUBJECT:

Weekly Report for Period Ending 28 October 1988

- 1. The Office of Logistics (OL) has a videotape available of the 26 October dedication ceremony for the statue of Gen. William Donovan. Attendees included former DCIs Richard Helms and William Colby and members of former DCI William Casey's family.
- 2. OL advises that construction work started on the Child Day Care Center on 24 October.

50X1-HUM

- 4. Office of Personnel (OP) representatives provided Agency recruitment information to over 12,000 people at the National World of Women's Conference in Houston last week.
- 5. OP kicked off its Life Planning Seminar on 25 October with a keynote address by Rick Garnitz, President of Lifespan Services. Over 130 employees attended. Mr. Garnitz noted that family issues merit as much consideration as financial matters when preparing for retirement.
- 6. OP reports that, with the recent addition of three new offices, 75 percent of the eligible Agency population is on the automated Electronic Time and Attendance System (ELECTAS). By February 1989, all eligible employees will be on the system.

ALL PORTIONS SECRET

25 X 1

- 7. The Office of Training and Education's (OTE) Training and Education Automated Management System (TEAMS) has, for the first time, enabled OTE to send "instant" confirmation letters to students accepted in eighty courses. One hundred seventy-eight recent requests were confirmed within two days.
- 8. During 17-18 October nine students from four Directorate of Intelligence production offices attended the pilot running of OTE's new course "Thinking for Writing: Starting Your Paper on the Right Track." The course included presentations on such topics as "Asking the Right Questions" and "Making the Concept Paper Work for You."
